

Day of Mourning

Every year, on April 28, workers, families, employers, and others come together at events held around the province to remember those who have lost their lives on the job, and to renew our commitment to creating safer workplaces.

In 2022, 181 B.C. workers died from a workplace injury or disease. There were 74 fatalities due to traumatic injury and 107 fatalities due to occupational disease.

Join us in honouring their memory on Sunday, April 30th at 11 am at O'Siyam Pavilion in Junction Park by the Workers' Memorial Cenotaph organized the Squamish and District Labour Committee (Community Event).
