Article 1 - PURPOSE OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

1.01 Purpose

THE PARTIES agree that the purpose of this collective agreement is:

- a) to maintain and promote harmonious relations;
- b) to maintain and enhance the practices and procedures of collective bargaining;
- c) to promote conditions favourable to the orderly and constructive settlement of disputes;
- d) to encourage efficiency in the District's operations and quality in service delivery;
- e) to promote the morale, well being and security of all Employees in the bargaining unit; and
- f) to recognize the value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions.

Article 2 - DEFINITIONS

2.01 Employee Definitions

- a) Regular Employee: is a person employed on a full time or part time basis, in a position which is expected to be continuous, and who has successfully completed probation.
- b) Probationary Employee: is a person employed full time or part time in a regular position and who is serving the probationary period.
- c) Temporary Employee: is a person employed full or part time, on a temporary basis for a specific period of time or specific purpose of up to six (6) months duration. Extensions may be obtained only by mutual consent in writing not less than 10 working days prior to the expiry of the temporary period. When the temporary appointment is at an end, the Employee is considered separated.

Consecutive temporary opportunities for a specific period of time or specific purpose consisting of the same or similar work as previously performed within the previous 90 days will not be created, except for recreation programs.

The Parties may, with mutual agreement, provide for consecutive temporary opportunities in any department.

- d) Casual Employee: is a person employed on a day-to-day basis (sporadic or consecutive); to perform specific short-term or occasional functions (not to exceed 14 calendar days), or to fill in for another Employee to a maximum of forty-two (42) days unless the employee being replaced is on vacation. A casual Employee can be scheduled ahead of time, but at any time may only be scheduled for up to 10 consecutive working days unless the employee being replaced is on vacation.
- e) Regular Position: is a position, full time or part time, of an ongoing nature.
- f) Temporary Position: is a position, full time or part time, which is of a limited duration.
- g) Promotion: for the purpose of this agreement is the movement of an Employee to a position in a classification with a higher rate of pay.
- h) Transfer: for the purpose of this agreement is the movement of an Employee to a position in a classification with the same rate of pay.
- i) Demotion: for the purpose of this agreement is the movement of an Employee to a position in a classification with a lower rate of pay.
- j) Last Date of Hire: is the date an Employee last entered the service of the Employer without a break in status as an Employee.
- k) Days: in this Collective Agreement means calendar days unless specified differently.

Article 3 - RECOGNITION OF THE UNION AND THE BARGAINING UNIT

3.01 Employer

The District of Squamish is an Employer within the meaning of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

3.02 Bargaining Unit

The Employer, or anyone authorized to act on its behalf, approves and recognizes CUPE Local 2269 as the sole collective bargaining agent for all Employees of the District save and except those excluded by the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

3.03 No Other Agreements

No Employee shall be required or permitted to make a written or verbal agreement with the Employer or his representatives which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

3.04 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit except in the case of an emergency or for the purpose of instruction.

Article 4 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

4.01 The management, supervision and control of the Employer's operation and the direction of the working force shall remain the exclusive function of management, provided that such management and direction does not contravene the express provisions of this Agreement.

4.02 The question of whether one of these rights is limited by this Agreement shall be decided through the grievance procedure.

4.03 The Employer shall always have the right to hire, discipline, demote, promote and discharge Employees for proper cause, or as set out in Article 11.03 dealing with probation.

Article 5 - NO DISCRIMINATION

5.01 The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any Employee in the matter of hiring, wage rates, training, upgrading, promotion, transfer, lay-off, recall, discipline, discharge, or otherwise by reason of race, creed, colour, national origin, political or religious affiliation, sex or marital status, nor by reason of his/her membership or activity in the Union.

5.02 The Employer and the union agree that sexual harassment will not be tolerated in the workplace.

Article 6 - UNION MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENT

6.01 All Employees to Be Members

All Employees of the Employer, as a condition of continuing employment, shall become and remain members in good standing of the Union. All future Employees of the Employer shall, as a condition of continued employment, become and remain members in good standing of the Union.

6.02 New Employees

The Employer agrees to acquaint new Employees with the fact that a Union Agreement is in effect.

6.03 Interviewing Opportunity

A representative of the Union or Steward shall be given an opportunity to interview each new Employee within regular working hours, without loss of pay, for a maximum of thirty (30) minutes during the first month of employment for the purpose of acquainting the new Employee with the benefits and duties of Union membership and its responsibilities and obligations to the Employer and the Union.

Article 7 - CHECK OFF OF UNION DUES

7.01 Written Assignment of Dues, Fees and Assessments

The Employer agrees to honour a written assignment and check-off all Union dues, fees, and assessments levied in accordance with the Constitution, and/or Bylaws of the Union for all Employees as a condition of continuing employment.

7.02 Union to Advise District

The Union agrees to advise the Employer of the amounts of such Union dues and/or assessments as may be determined from time to time by said Union.

7.03 Dues, Fees and Assessments Deducted

The Employer, upon receipt of such advice from the Union, shall thereupon make the deductions from the earnings of the Employees. The amounts deducted together with a list of those Employees from whom such deductions were made, shall be remitted to the Union Treasurer not later than the pay day following that from which the deductions were made. The Union further agrees to indemnify the Employer with regards to check offs, collection and remitting of dues money to the Union.

7.04 Dues on Temporary Promotion to Management

An Employee temporarily promoted to a management position pursuant to Article 19.04, shall continue to pay membership dues, through payroll deduction, in an amount equal to what the Employee would have paid had they remained in the bargaining unit.

7.05 Information to Union

The District will provide to the Union from time to time, upon request, the names and mailing addresses of current members of the bargaining unit, as on file. This information is for the exclusive use of the Union.

Article 8 - LABOUR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

8.01 Representation

No individual Employee or group of Employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper authorization of the Union. In order that this may be carried out, the Union will supply the Employer with the names of its officers. Similarly, the Employer will supply the Union with a list of its supervisory or other personnel with whom the Union shall be required to transact business.

8.02 Representatives of Canadian Union of Public Employees

The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing or negotiating with the Employer.

8.03 Technical Information

The Employer and the Union agree to exchange such information as: job descriptions, positions in the bargaining unit, job classifications, wage rates, pension and welfare plans.

Article 9 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

9.01 Recognition of Union Steward

- a) In order to provide an orderly and speedy procedure for the settling of grievances, the Employer acknowledges the rights and duties of the Union Stewards. The Steward shall assist any Employees whom the Steward represents, in preparing a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure.
- b) The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of all Union Stewards.

9.02 Right to Have Union Steward Present

- a) An Employee shall have the right to have a Steward or Union Representative present at any discussions with management supervisory personnel, which the Employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action.
- b)
 - i) Where a management supervisor intends to interview an Employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall so notify the Union in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the Steward or Union Representative may be present at the interview.
 - ii) No Employee is required to answer to the charges without a Steward or Union Representative present.

9.03 Permission to Leave Work

The Employer agrees that Stewards shall not be hindered, coerced, restrained, or interfered with in any way in the performance of their duties, while investigating disputes. The union recognizes that each Steward is employed by the Employer and that the Steward will not leave work during working hours except to perform duties under this Agreement. Therefore no Steward or Employee involved in the aforementioned investigation shall leave work without obtaining the permission of the Department Head, which permission shall not be unduly withheld.

9.04 Grievance Defined

Should any difference arise between the persons bound by the Agreement concerning its interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation thereof, including any question governing the dismissal or suspension of an Employee bound by the Agreement, and including any questions as to whether any matter is arbitrable, there shall be no stoppage of work on account of such difference and an earnest effort shall be made to settle the difference in the following manner.

9.05 Grievances and Replies Shall Be in Writing

The grievance shall be stated in writing and shall state the Article of this agreement grieved when possible. All replies to grievances, at all stages shall be in writing and shall state reasons.

9.06 Facilities for Grievances

The Employer shall supply the necessary facilities for grievance meetings.

9.07 Technical Objection to Grievances

No grievance shall be defeated or denied by any formal or technical objection. An arbitrator shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision which the arbitrator deems just and equitable.

9.08 Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involves a question of general application or interpretation, or when a group of Employees, the Union or the Employer has a grievance, the grievance shall commence at Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure.

9.09 Grievance Procedures

a) Informal Discussion

The parties recommend, that prior to filing a formal grievance, an Employee who has a perceived difference may meet with the immediate management supervisor and that the Employee and supervisor shall informally discuss the matter and attempt to resolve it. Either person may be accompanied by a shop steward or witness.

b) Grievance Process

Step 1

A difference shall be submitted in writing as a grievance and shall be referred to the immediate management supervisor within seven (7) days of the Employee or the union becoming aware, or should have reasonably been aware of the incident giving rise to the grievance. There shall be five (5) days to resolve the grievance.

If the immediate management supervisor is the department head, and the grievance is not resolved, Step 2 shall be skipped.

Step 2

A matter not resolved at Step 1, may be referred in writing within seven (7) days by the Union to the appropriate department head. There shall be seven (7) days to meet and resolve the grievance.

Step 3

A grievance not resolved at Step 2 above, may be referred in writing to the Administrator within seven (7) days. A meeting involving up to three (3) representatives of the Union and up to three (3) representatives of the Employer shall be held within fourteen (14) days to resolve the grievance. The Administrator shall have five (5) days to respond in writing following the meeting. The Union shall notify the Administrator in writing of its acceptance or rejection of the response within five (5) days of receiving it. If the matter is not resolved the Union shall refer it to arbitration within a further ten (10) days.

c) Mediation

A grievance not resolved at Step 3 above, may be referred to mediation by either party within five (5) days of the referral to arbitration. This referral shall be done by requesting the Labour Relations Board to appoint a mediator to assist the parties to settle the grievance. Time does not run in respect of the arbitration procedure in this Article until the mediator has completed the mediation process.

9.10 Arbitration

a) Arbitration

If arbitration is to be used, the Parties shall agree on a single arbitrator, or should the parties fail to appoint an arbitrator within seven (7) days of the reference to arbitration, either party may request the Director of the Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau to make the appointment.

b) Arbitration General

- i) The arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, amend, subtract from, or in any way alter the terms of this collective agreement.
- ii) The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon any person affected by it.
- iii) The expenses and compensation of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties.

9.11 Time Limits

Wherever a stipulated time is mentioned in the grievance and arbitration procedures, the said time may be extended only by mutual consent of the parties.

9.12 Access to Personnel File

An Employee shall have the right, by appointment, to have access to and review his/her personnel file and shall have the right to receive a copy of and to respond in writing to any document contained therein, such a reply becoming part of the permanent record. The appointment will be scheduled within 4 working days of receipt of a written request to access the file.

9.13 Adverse Report

a) Notice of Adverse Report

The Employer will not introduce as evidence in any hearing related to disciplinary action any adverse document from the file of an Employee, the existence of which the Employee was not made aware at the time the document was placed on the Employee's personnel file.

b) Removal of Adverse Reports

Any adverse report is to be removed from a personnel file eighteen (18) months from the date of issue of such report, provided there are no further adverse reports of a similar nature.

Article 10 - SENIORITY

10.01 General

The Parties hereto recognize that all Employees are entitled to a measure of employment security, based on seniority, and that the Employee shall accrue certain preference in this respect as provided in this Agreement.

10.02 Seniority Defined

- a) Seniority is defined as a Regular Employee's calculated length of service with the District and is measured from the last date of hire. An Employee shall not acquire seniority while on probation but shall be given seniority credit for the probation period and previous time served as measured by the actual number of shifts worked back to the last date of hire, upon successful completion of probation. Therefore, seniority shall continue to accrue while a Regular Employee is on leave of absence, without pay or without loss of pay, and while on layoff with recall rights.
- b) Seniority shall operate on a bargaining-unit wide basis.
- c) A Casual Employee who successfully completes the probation period for a regular position shall have regular seniority on the basis of the date on which regular employee status was achieved.

10.03 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each Regular Employee's current service commenced, and the seniority accrued. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union during the months of March and September and shall be posted in all Departments.

10.04 Loss of Seniority

An Employee shall lose seniority and shall no longer be an Employee only in the event:

- a) the Employee is discharged for just cause;
- b) the Employee resigns;
- c) the Employee is absent from work in excess of two (2) working days (of the Employee) without sufficient cause or without notifying the Employer, unless such notice was not reasonably possible;
- d) the Employee no longer has recall rights;
- e) the Employee is permanently moved to a position outside the bargaining unit after six (6) months from the date of the move;
- f) the Employee retires.

10.05 Temporary and Casual Seniority

- a) Seniority

Any Temporary or Casual Employee hired on or before September 15, 2005 who has worked more than 65 shifts in one calendar year (January-December) will be considered to have acquired casual seniority. This casual seniority will be established on the basis of the date upon which the casual employee was last hired, and use such seniority for the purposes of being considered for the vacancy or for the purpose of assignment of shifts in accordance with 13.08 a).

Any Casual or Temporary Employees hired after September 15, 2005 who has worked more than 65 shifts in one calendar year (January-December) in a single department will be considered to have acquired casual seniority in that Department. This casual seniority will be established on the basis of the date upon which the casual employee was last hired in that department, and use such seniority for purposes of being considered for the vacancy or for the purpose of assignment of shifts in accordance with 13.08 a).

- b) A Casual Employee who is not called to work for three (3) months or is unavailable for work for a period of three (3) months or more, shall be considered separated and lose all seniority.

Article 11 - PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

11.01 Job Postings

- a) When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created for a regular position which the Employer has decided to fill it shall be posted on all bulletin boards for seven (7) calendar days. Positions may be advertised in the media simultaneously with the bulletin board posting.
- b) The Employer, on a temporary basis, may fill a posted position during the posting and selection period.
- c) For temporary positions of up to forty-two (42) days, a posting is not required. Positions of longer than forty-two (42) days (seventy-eight (78) days only in the case of temporary aquatic program positions) shall be posted except where the vacancy is created by the absence of an Employee due to vacation.
- d) If a temporary position is made into a regular position, the new regular position shall be posted at least 14 days prior to the end of the temporary position.
- e)
 - i) A posting shall include the following information:
nature of position; qualifications, skills, required knowledge and education; current shift, number of hours of work, wage rate.
 - ii) Such qualifications may not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner, and shall reflect the contents of the Job Description.

11.02 Role of Seniority in Appointments, Promotions, Demotions and Transfers

- a) Both parties recognize the principle of promotion within the service of the Employer in the bargaining unit
- b)
 - i) For the classifications described in Letter of Understanding #12, appointments, promotions, demotions, and transfers shall be based on the ability, knowledge, qualifications and seniority of the employees considered. Where the ability, qualifications and knowledge of the applicants are relatively equal, the senior applicant will be the successful candidate. For all other classifications, where the ability, qualifications and knowledge are sufficient to perform the functions of the posted position, the senior applicant shall be appointed.

- ii) If the position is not filled by an employee in (i) above, the ability and qualifications of casual and temporary employees described in Article 10.05 shall be considered, and if relatively equal, the senior applicant as determined in Article 10.05 shall be appointed.
 - iii) If the position is not filled by an employee in (i) or (ii) above, all other applicants shall be considered.
- c) If the successful applicant is from within the bargaining unit the notification of the appointment shall be made within fourteen (14) days of the closing of the posting.

11.03 Probation

a) Probation Period

A newly appointed Regular Employee shall serve a probationary period of sixty-five (65) days worked. The probationary period may be extended for a maximum of 20 days worked, by mutual consent between the Parties.

b) Purpose of Probation

The purpose of probation is to determine the Employee's suitability for employment by the District as a Regular Employee. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, the Employee shall be considered permanent.

11.04 Trial

- a) A Regular Employee who moves from one classification to another shall be placed on trial for a period of sixty-five (65) days worked. Conditional on satisfactory service, upon successful completion of the trial period, the Employee shall be considered permanent in the position.
- b) In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the trial period, is unable to perform the duties of the new job classification, or if the Employee wishes to return to the previous position, the Employee shall be returned to the Employee's former position, except in the case of a bump in which case the Employee shall be laid off.

- c) Any other Employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to the Employee's former position without loss of seniority and wage.

11.05 Notification to Union

The Employer agrees to notify the Union, in writing, when an Employee covered by this agreement is hired, promoted, demoted, transferred, laid off, recalled, resigns, is temporarily assigned pursuant to Article 11.07, or is suspended or terminated.

11.06 Increase in Part Time Hours

- a) When a regular part time position's normal hours are increased on an ongoing basis by up to and including five hours per week with a maximum of two hours on any day, the incumbent, if a Regular Employee, shall be given the opportunity to accept the increased hours. If the incumbent declines the opportunity, the incumbent shall be given layoff notice with the right to exercise any bumping rights.
- b) If the increase in hours, on an ongoing basis, of a part time position is greater than either five hours in a week or two hours in a day, or creates a full time position, or if the position becomes vacant, it shall be posted.
- c) Notwithstanding a) and b) above, the incumbent shall work the changed number of hours if employed as a Regular Employee on a part time basis in any of the following classifications: Program Instructor; Pre-School Instructor; Lifeguard Instructor. However, if the increase in hours creates a full time position it shall be posted.

11.07 Temporary Assignments

Regular Employees who move to temporary positions made available by augmenting the staff or by a special project of limited duration shall upon completion of said assignment be returned to the Employee's former position without loss of seniority and scheduled rate of pay.

11.08 Movement to Position Outside Bargaining Unit

- a) No Employee shall move to a position outside the bargaining unit without the Employee's consent.
- b) A Regular Employee who has been moved to a position with the employer outside the bargaining unit and who returns to the bargaining unit, shall have time sensitive benefits such as vacation, sick leave, etc. based on total service with the Employer since last date of hire.

Article 12 - LAYOFFS, BUMPING AND RECALL

12.01 Layoff

- a) Layoff Defined

A layoff shall be defined as an employer initiated reduction in the work force or a reduction in a Regular Employee's regular hours of work as defined in this Agreement.

- b) Layoff Exceptions

It is recognized that Regular part time Employees within the recreation department who have seasonally adjusted hours shall not be deemed to be laid off except if there is an elimination of the Employee's position or a reduction of five or more hours per week in their work schedule.

Pre-School Instructors, Program Instructors and Lifeguard Instructors shall not be deemed to be laid off at the end of lesson/program sets.

12.02 Layoff Procedure

- a) Both Parties recognize that job security should increase in proportion to length of service.
- b) The Employer has the responsibility to determine, in consultation with the Union, which positions are to be laid off. In the event of a layoff of an employee in a department with more than one position in the same classification, the junior employee in that classification shall be laid off.

12.03 Notice of Layoff

- a) The Employer shall give an Employee who is to be laid off, advance notice in writing as follows:

one week's notice after 3 consecutive months of employment;
2 weeks' notice after 12 consecutive months of employment;
3 weeks' notice after 3 consecutive years of employment, plus one additional week for each additional year of employment, to a maximum of 8 weeks' notice.
- b) If sufficient notice is not given, the Employee shall be paid what the Employee normally would have earned during the notice period.
- c) The provision of this clause shall not apply because of temporary suspension of work due to inclement weather.

12.04 Layoff Options

An Employee who is given lay off notice has the option to:

- a) Accept the layoff;
- b) Accept the layoff if it is a reduction in hours and work the reduced hours;
- c) Bump an Employee with less seniority.

12.05 Bumping

- a) The Employer recognizes the right of Regular Employees to exercise seniority within the bargaining unit to bump in the event of layoff into another position provided that they possess the necessary qualifications to perform the duties of that position.
 - b) An Employee who exercises bumping rights can only bump into a position which is regular. A regular part time Employee can only bump into a position which has the same or fewer hours of work per week.
 - c) A Program Instructor and a Pre-School Instructor shall not have the right to bump at the end of a lesson/program set.

12.06 Bumping Notice

A Regular Employee who is given notice of layoff shall also be provided with a form to be used by the Employee to indicate the option he wishes to exercise in accordance with 12.04. In the event the Employee chooses to bump, he shall identify the position into which he wishes to bump.

12.07 Bumping Process

- a) A Regular Employee wishing to bump will advise the Employee's Department Head in writing within seven (7) days of receipt of the layoff notice.
- b) A Regular Employee wishing to bump and who is on an approved leave of absence during the notice period, will advise the Employee's Department Head in writing within five days worked following receipt of the lay-off notice.
- c) The Employee, when advising of the wish to bump, shall indicate where the bump should occur.
- d) The Employer, within seven (7) days of receipt of the returned bumping notice, shall advise if the Employee is able to bump.
- e) If the Employee is not able to bump, the Employee may grieve by filing a grievance at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

12.08 Trial Period on Bumping

The Union agrees that the trial period, as stated in Article 11 shall be in effect.

12.09 Effective Date for Bump

In the event the Employee who has bumped is placed in the new position before the end of the layoff notice period, the Employee shall receive no reduction in regular pay until the end of the layoff notice period.

Thereafter, the Employee shall be paid the rate for the new position. Movement to the new position shall be in accordance with Article 13 pertaining to periods between shifts and work weeks.

12.10 Recall Procedure

a) Length of Recall Rights

- (i) A Regular employee with less than one year of seniority who is laid off or who bumps, or who has applied for a posted vacancy during the lay-off notice period and obtained it, shall have recall rights for six months from the effective date of the layoff or bump.
- (ii) A Regular employee with one year or more of seniority who is laid off or who bumps, or who has applied for a posted vacancy during the lay-off notice period and obtained it, shall have recall rights for one year from the effective date of the layoff or bump.

b) Recall

If a vacancy occurs in a classification from which a Regular employee has been laid off or has exercised bumping rights, the employee shall be recalled to the classification provided the employee still has recall rights, is qualified to do the work, and provided the position is for the same number of hours that the employee worked at the time of the layoff or bump. Recall shall be in order of seniority.

c) Recall Process and Response

- (i) An employee who is offered a recall but declines shall no longer have recall rights, unless the employee declined for medical reasons.
- (ii) An employee who fails to return to work within fourteen (14) days following a recall, after being notified by double registered mail (or equivalent) or by hand, to do so, shall be deemed to have declined the recall, unless unable to do so because of sickness or other just cause. The fourteen day period commences on the date the employee receives the notification of the recall.

d) It is the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer informed of the employee's current address.

- e) Loss of Recall Rights
 - (i) An employee who bumps and subsequently obtains a posted vacancy shall no longer have recall rights. An employee who is laid off and who obtains a posted vacancy shall no longer have recall rights
 - (ii) An employee who applied for a posted vacancy during the lay-off notice period and who obtained it, and who subsequently obtains another posted vacancy, shall no longer have recall rights.

12.11 Casual, Temporary Work While on Recall List

a) Casual/Temporary Work Available

An Employee on layoff with recall rights, who wishes to work on a casual or temporary basis in positions which are not posted, shall register with the Department Head, specifying those positions for which the laid-off Employee is immediately capable and qualified. To the extent practicable, the Employer will offer casual and temporary work to registered Employees, prior to Regular part time, Casual or Temporary Employees. They shall be considered as Casual Employees for the purpose of this section. The offer or acceptance of such work shall not affect the Employee's recall rights.

The parties may by mutual agreement during the term of this agreement amend the hours and days of work provisions to provide hours and days of work other than those defined in this Article 13.

13.08 Extra Casual Hours for Regular Part Time Employees

Regular part time Employees, in order of seniority, will be offered available casual hours (prior to hiring Casual Employees), in the same classification, where practicable provided such hours do not result in overtime payments, and provided that the Employee(s) are qualified to perform the work. Regular part time Employees shall not be assigned casual hours if this would result in the Employee not having two (2) consecutive days of rest in each week. Employee(s) must have the capability to do "Extra" hours with a minimum orientation to the job involved.

13.09 Casual Employees - Hours

- a) Casual Employees who have seniority pursuant to Article 10.05 shall be assigned hours based on their qualifications, seniority and availability. That is, they shall be offered hours in classifications they are qualified to work in by rotation if they are available for the full assignment. Such hours must be available in a department the Employee would normally work in.
- b) Casual Employees shall not work more than thirty-five (35) or forty (40) hours per week (depending on the classification worked in) except when required to work unscheduled weekly overtime hours. Casual Employees however who are replacing an Employee who normally works longer than seven (7) hours or eight (8) hours as the case may be may work the longer shift hours without attracting overtime.
- c) Casual Employees shall have at least two (2) consecutive days off in each week.
- d) A Casual Employee offered shift(s) is required to inform the Employer that he will be entitled to be paid at overtime rates.
- e) All Casual Employees must give the Employer their schedule of availability 10 days in advance of the following month. If that Employee does not, they will be deemed to be unavailable for the month.
- f) A casual guard employed at the RCMP detachment who has submitted a schedule of availability and who subsequently refuses three (3) shifts in a six (6) consecutive month period shall be removed from the casual list. The six (6) month period will move from the last date of refusal.

- g) Illness and/or emergent situations shall be reasons for refusal without penalty.
- h) A casual guard employed at the RCMP detachment may amend their availability with forty-eight (48) hours notice to their immediate supervisor.
- i) A Casual Employee shall lose seniority and no longer be an Employee if the Employee is absent from work in excess of two scheduled shifts without sufficient cause or without 48 hours notice unless such notice was not reasonably possible. Casual Employees shall not lose seniority and cease to be an Employee if they are absent due to illness.
- j) At the discretion of the Employer, Casual Employees will be required to attend training sessions. The Employer will pay the Employee at his regular rate of pay. The Employer will provide the Employee with a reasonable amount of notice of such training session(s).

13.10 Rest Between Shifts

- a) There shall be at least nine (9) hours rest between shifts.
- b) Failure to provide at least nine (9) hours rest between shifts shall result in the payment of overtime rates for any hours worked during such normal rest period. This Article 13.09 shall apply to all Employees, except guards.

13.11 Rest Periods

An Employee shall be permitted a rest period of fifteen (15) consecutive minutes in both the first half and the second half of a shift, at a time convenient to the work load.

13.12 Shift Premium

- a) Employees shall be paid a shift differential of eighty-five (85) cents per hour for all regular hours worked between 4:30 pm and 12:00 midnight.

- b) Employees shall be paid a shift differential of ninety-five (95) cents per hour for all regular hours worked between 12:01 am and 8:00 am.

13.13 Assignment of Shifts

- a) Shifts are to be divided equitably among the qualified Regular Employees involved in the work.
- b) A Regular Employee can exercise seniority to change shifts for the period, provided there is no additional cost to the Employer:
 - (i) to replace an Employee on another shift where it is known the Employee will be absent for four shifts or more; or
 - (ii) where there is a need for an additional worker on the other shift for four shifts or longer.

13.14 Split Shifts

A split shift cannot be longer than twelve (12) hours from start to end.

13.15 Call Out

- a) Call out Not Contiguous to Shift

Every full time Employee who is called out unexpectedly from home to work hours that are not contiguous to the Employee's regular shift shall be paid for a minimum of four (4) hours at the appropriate overtime rate of pay.

- b) Call out Contiguous to Shift
When a full time Employee has been called out and the hours worked are contiguous to the regular shift the hours shall be paid at the appropriate overtime rate.
- c) Call out Start time
Call out time begins at the time the Employee arrives at work.
- d) Call out time shall not be eligible for shift differential.
- e) Unexpected work at home

A full time Employee who is unexpectedly called at home outside of regular working hours, and as a consequence then spends time calling out other Employees or giving instructions over the phone, shall be paid a minimum of one-half (1/2) hour at overtime rates for the time spent.

13.16 Change of Shifts and Shift Start Times

- a) Specific shift changes from one shift to another and of starting times on the same shift (where not prohibited by the collective agreement) shall be made with a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours written notice given to affected Employees. If forty-eight hours notice is not given, the time worked on the new shift prior to the time the Employee would have started on the regular schedule shall be paid at the appropriate overtime rate until the forty-eight hours has expired. The notice period is to be calculated to the new starting time.
- b) If necessary to reschedule a shift change within the week the Employee has been scheduled, the shift differential shall not be affected.

13.17 Standby

An Employee required to be on standby duty shall verbally respond to telephone calls; redirect action to an appropriate Employee(s); or respond personally if appropriate.

Standby pay for a standby service will be as follows:

- One (1) hour pay for each eight (8) hours or portion thereof for standby time which occurs on a regularly scheduled work day;
- One (1) hour pay for each six (6) hours or portion thereof for standby time which occurs on a day of rest.

Article 14 - OVERTIME

14.01 Overtime defined

Overtime is defined as time worked:

- (a) beyond the regular full time daily hours of work in Article 13; or
 - (b) in excess of the regular full time hours of any classification in a week; or
 - (c) when an Employee is called out after completion of a full shift and before the next shift begins.

14.02 Overtime

a) Overtime Rates

- (i) Overtime will be paid at the rate of time and one-half the Employee's regular rate for the first two (2) hours, and double the Employee's regular rate thereafter, on that day.
- (ii) All time worked on a Regular full time Employee's days of rest shall be paid for at double the Employee's regular rate.

b) Overtime Sharing

All overtime and callout time will be offered by seniority on a purely rotational basis among regular full time employees in that department and classification who are willing and qualified to perform the available work.

- c) It is agreed that no Employee shall be laid off during regular hours to equalize any overtime work.
- d) Employees who are absent on approved time off during the scheduled work week because of sickness, bereavement, holidays, vacation or other approved paid leave of absence and who are called out to work shall, for the purpose of computing overtime pay, be considered as if they had worked during their regular hours during such absence.

14.03 Overtime Bank

- a) Employees may bank unlimited overtime.
- b) Employees shall be permitted to take time off from banked overtime to a maximum of ten (10) days per year. Time off shall be taken at a time mutually agreed upon between the Employer and the Employee. Payment of banked overtime shall be paid at the rate at which it was earned.

- c) (i) By mutual agreement, an Employee may carry over a maximum of five (5) days to augment the next year's vacation allotment. Such request shall be submitted no later than November 15th in each year.
- (ii) The Employee will be notified by the Employer no later than December 1 that the request to carry over the banked overtime has been approved or not.
- d) All banked overtime not carried over or not paid out by the first full pay period of December in each year shall be included in that pay.
- e) Casual Employees, while working in temporary positions, can bank overtime hours until such time as the temporary position has ended. Banked overtime for Casual Employees shall be paid out in the first full pay period in December.

14.04 Provisions for Meals and Rest Periods on Overtime

Where an Employee is required to work overtime, the Employee shall receive breaks of one-half (1/2) hour each, for meal time, as herein provided.

- a) In the event that the overtime work continues immediately after work hours and is estimated to continue to two (2) hours or longer, the first one-half (1/2) hour break shall be given within the second (2nd) hour of overtime without pay, and if overtime continues, the Employee shall be entitled to one-half (1/2) hour time off with pay at the end of every four (4) hours after the first meal break.
 - b) In the event that an Employee, having completed the Employee's regular hours, is called back to perform overtime work, the one-half (1/2) hour time period shall be granted within the fifth (5th) hour of overtime with pay and if overtime work continues, then further periods shall be granted at the end of every four (4) hours thereafter, with pay.
 - c) If an Employee is required to perform overtime work within the first hour after regular hours, the overtime work will, for the purpose of this clause, be deemed to have continued immediately after regular hours.
 - d) In each four (4) hour overtime work period there shall be a fifteen (15) minute paid rest period.

- e) In the event the Employee is not able to take a stipulated meal break(s) the Employee shall receive additional pay equal to the time they would normally have taken as paid meal break(s).

d) Benefits on Layoff and Leave of Absence Without Pay

An Employee on layoff with recall rights or leave of absence without pay shall be continued on all applicable benefits and cost share formula(s) for three (3) complete months following the month in which the lay off takes effect, provided the Employee's share of premiums is paid in advance. The Employee may remain on all applicable benefits thereafter (for the balance of the period of recall or to a maximum of one (1) years leave without pay) by providing payment for 100% of benefit premiums in advance.

e) Advance Payments

An Employee may make advance payments by pre-authorized cheque, cash, post dated cheques or some other arrangement as may be mutually agreed.

21.07 Regular Part Time and Temporary Employees Pay in Lieu of Benefits

Pay in lieu of benefits in the amount of twelve percent (12%) of basic wage on all regular hours worked shall be paid to:

- a) all regular part time Employees who normally work an average of less than twenty (20) hours per week;
- b) Temporary Employees who have completed sixty-five (65) shifts and still have seniority as per Article 10.05 (b).

If any of the above Employees participates in the Municipal Pension Plan, the pay in lieu of benefits will be 4%.

21.08 Retirement Pay

An Employee who retires from the service of the District shall receive a retirement sum of two days pay at the Employee's current rate of pay for each year or part year worked as an Employee.

For the purpose of this retirement pay clause, "retire" means an Employee leaving the service of the District and receiving benefits under the Pension (Municipal) Plan or upon receipt of a disability allowance or upon resignation by the Regular Full Time Employee after twenty-five (25) years of full time service with the District.

Article 22 - OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

22.01 The Union and the Employer agree that safety and health shall be in accordance with the Workers' Compensation Act and all its regulations.

22.02 There shall continue to be an Occupational Health and Safety Committee which is composed of at least two (2) members from management and two (2) members from the Union. The Committee shall hold monthly meetings for jointly considering, monitoring, inspecting, investigating and reviewing health and safety conditions and practices and to improve existing health and safety conditions and practices. Minutes shall be taken of all meetings and copies shall be made available to the Employer, the Union and Workers' Compensation Board.

Article 23 - TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGES

23.01 Union Notification of Changes

Sixty (60) days before the introduction of any technological changes, or methods of operation which affect the rights of Regular Employees, conditions of employment, wage rates or work loads, the Employer shall notify the union of the proposed change. If the Employer and the Union fail to agree on the results of the change, the matter shall be referred to the Grievance Procedure of this Agreement.

23.02 No Termination

No Regular Employee shall be terminated by the Employer because of mechanization or technological changes. A Regular Employee who is displaced from the Employee's job by virtue of technological change or improvement will suffer no reduction in normal earnings and will be given the opportunity to fill other vacancies according to seniority.

23.03 Training Programme

In the event that the Employer should introduce new methods or machines which require new or greater skills than are possessed by Regular Employees under the present methods of operation, such Employees shall, at the expense of the Employer be given a minimum period, not to exceed three (3) months, during which time they may perfect or acquire the skills necessitated by the new methods of operation. There shall be no change in wage or salary rates during the training period of any such Employee and no reduction in pay upon being reclassified in the new position.

Article 24 - JOB SECURITY

24.01 Contracting Out

No bargaining unit Employee shall be laid off or not be recalled as a result of the Employer contracting out any of its present work or services.

24.02 Volunteers

No bargaining unit Employee will be laid off or not be recalled as a result of the Employer using volunteers to do any of its present work or services.

Article 25 - GENERAL

25.01 Forms To Be Completed

The Employer agrees that all new Employees upon date of hire shall be required to complete all forms required under this Agreement.

25.02 New Employees To Be Acquainted

The Employer agrees to acquaint all new Employees with conditions of work, supply of work clothing and safety equipment.

25.03 Plural or Feminine Terms May Apply

Whenever the singular, masculine or feminine is used in the Agreement, it shall be considered as if the plural, feminine or masculine has been used where the context so requires.

25.04 Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide Bulletin Boards which shall be placed so that all Employees will have access to them and upon which the Union shall have the right to post notices of meetings and such other notices as may be of interest to the Employees.

25.05 Tools, Equipment and Vehicles

- a) The Employer shall supply all tools, equipment and vehicles required by the Employees in the performance of their duties. Replacement will be made by producing the worn or broken tool.
- b) This excludes the Maintenance Mechanic's position, who will supply the hand tools, however, all benefits of insurance and replacement shall apply.

25.06 Funded Work Program Employees

It is understood that if a Federal, Provincial, and/or any other funded program Employee is selected as a Regular Employee, during or at the completion of their employment on such funded program, they shall be accorded all provisions of the Collective Agreement accorded Probationary Employees.

25.07 Temporary Employees shall not be permitted to work in two (2) classifications at the same time except by mutual Agreement between the parties. Such agreement will be in the form of a letter of understanding.

25.08 Crossing of Legal Picket Lines

- a) No Employee covered by this Agreement except in emergency conditions will be required to enter any building, property or business where a picket line of a recognized Labour Union is in evidence.
- b) Failure to cross such a picket line by the members of this Union shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement, nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action. Pay for such loss of time shall be at the discretion of the Employer.

Article 26 - PRESENT CONDITIONS AND BENEFITS

26.01 Present Conditions to Continue

All rights, benefits, privileges and working conditions which Employees and the Employer now enjoy, receive or possess shall continue to be enjoyed and possessed in so far as they are consistent with the Agreement, but may be modified by mutual Agreement between the Employer and the Union.

26.02 Continuation of Acquired Rights

All provisions of the Agreement are subject to applicable laws now or hereafter in effect. If any law now existing or hereinafter enacted, or proclamation or regulation shall invalidate any portion of this Agreement, or if there is an amalgamation, annexation, merger or other structural change of the Employer, the entire Agreement shall not be invalidated and the existing rights, privileges and obligations of the Employees shall remain in existence and either Party, upon notice to the other may reopen this Agreement for negotiation.

Article 27 - LABOUR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

27.01 A Joint Labour/Management Committee shall be established consisting of up to three representatives of the Union and three representatives of the Employer.

27.02 The Joint Committee shall concern itself with discussing issues relating to the workplace that affect the parties or any Employee bound by this Agreement, with problems and potential problems involving the Parties, but not with grievances, and shall have the power only to make recommendations to the Union and the Employer.

27.03 The Joint Committee shall meet at the written call of either party, for a stated purpose, within ten (10) days of the call. Minutes will be taken for the proceedings of each meeting, and each party shall receive a copy of the Minutes.

27.04 Employees in attendance will not suffer a loss of pay for attending Joint Labour/Management Committee meetings.

Article 28 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

28.01 This Agreement shall be for the period from and including January 1st, 2004 to and including December 31, 2007 subject to the right of either party to the Agreement, at any time within four (4) months immediately preceding the date of the expiry of this Agreement (December 31, 2007) or immediately preceding the last day of December in any year thereafter by written notice, to require the other party of the Agreement to commence collective bargaining.

28.02 Should either party give written notice, aforesaid, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect and neither party shall make any change in the terms of the said Agreement (or increase or decrease the rate of pay of any Employees for whom collective bargaining is being conducted or alter any other term or condition of employment) until:

- a) the Union goes on strike, or
- b) the Employer lock-outs the Employees, or
- c) the parties shall conclude a renewal or revision of this Agreement or enter into a new Collective Agreement.

whichever is the earliest.

The operation of Section 50(2) and 50(3) of the Labour Relations Code is hereby excluded.

28.03 Retroactivity

All changes in the new Agreement shall be adjusted retroactively unless otherwise specified.

28.04 Mutually Agreed Changes

Any mutually-agreed changes to this Collective Agreement shall form part of this Collective Agreement and are subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure. Such mutually-agreed changes shall be presented in writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, BOTH PARTIES HERETO HAVE EXECUTED THEIR PRESENCE ON THIS ___ DAY OF _____, 2005.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING 2

THE UNDERSIGNED BARGAINING REPRESENTATIVES, ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE DISTRICT OF SQUAMISH AND THE UNDERSIGNED REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL NO. 2269, AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

Job Sharing:

1. Two persons, one of whom must be a full time Employee and the other must be a regular, Temporary or Casual Employee, who wish to job share in a full time position already being filled by one of them, shall make a written request to the Employer, with a copy to the Union. The request shall specify the basis of the sharing, set out the details of how the duties and responsibilities will be shared and communicated, and indicate concurrence with the conditions in this Letter of Understanding.

The proposal and the feasibility of implementation shall be considered by the Employer. Approval of the proposal is at the discretion of the Employer and could be given subject to changes in the proposed work schedule, work division, or selected partner. The Employer's response, which shall be sent to the Employees and Union, shall also be based on the following principles to determine suitability of the persons and the position for job sharing:

- a) service is not negatively impacted;
- b) productivity is not negatively impacted;
- c) there are no additional costs to the Employer beyond those associated with normal orientation and transition, and Employee benefits;
- d) job continuity questions and skill levels are satisfactory
- e) job sharing arrangements may be limited to one per work area;
- f) each person involved has the skills, knowledge, abilities and qualifications for the position.

The arrangement for job sharing shall be for a specific period of not less than six months and not more than one year. The posting for the moving Employee's position, if there was one, shall stipulate the vacancy is for a temporary appointment to expire at the end of the job sharing arrangement which brought about the vacancy (The time limitation for temporary appointments is waived in this situation). This position will be posted as a regular vacancy if the moving Employee remains in the job share for more than 12 months.

The status of an Employee is not altered as the result of job sharing, unless one was a Casual Employee in which case the Employee will be a Temporary Employee for the duration of the job share.

2. Job sharing shall be on the basis of:
 - a) if on a five day week
 - i) one job-sharer being assigned three days every week and the other two days; or
 - ii) a split resulting in each working 2 2 days each week; or
 - iii) a split of one-half of the hours each day; or
 - (iv) a schedule whereby the job sharers alternate 3- and 2- day work weeks each week.
 - b) if on a 10 hour or 12 hour shift each working 50% of the hours each day or 50% of the days
3. Job sharers may be asked to work additional hours in the job they hold, but may not work additional casual or temporary hours elsewhere.
4. No Employee who job shares will lose any Employee benefits, and the payment of benefit premiums shall be in accord with the terms of this Collective Agreement.
5. Vacation entitlement, sick leave, public holiday pay shall be pro-rated based on the hours worked by each of the job sharers.
6. The job sharing arrangement shall be at an end if:
 - a) one of the Employees can no longer be involved in the job sharing because of separation from the District; or
 - b) one of the job sharers is the successful candidate for a vacancy; or
 - c) the Employer, or one of the job sharers, finds that job sharing is not working satisfactorily, and give 30 days notice, and Employees return to the previous positions.

If this occurs during the first 12 months of a job share and the incumbent leaves the job share under (a) or (b) above, the position is posted and the Employee who moved returns to the previous position. If the Employee who moved to the job shares leave under (a) or (b) above, the original holder returns to full time, and the temporary position is posted as a regular position.

Any other temporary appointment which was made as a result of the job share shall cease and a temporary appointment which was made as a result of the job share shall cease and a Temporary Employee who may be displaced shall be given layoff notice.

If the job share arrangement has been in effect for at least 12 months, and the original holder of the position has left the job share, the other job sharer shall be given layoff notice and the position shall be posted. If the Employee who moved to the job share has left the job share, the original incumbent shall return to full time in the position. If the job share ends because of (c) above, the incumbent shall return to full time and the person who moved to the job share shall be given layoff notice, and the provisions of the agreement with respect to layoff, bumping and recall will apply.

7. In the event the Employer intends to fill a vacancy created by one of the job sharers absence, the other job sharer shall be offered the absent job sharer's obligations for the period involved.

8. If the Employer eliminates the job shared position, or reduces the hours of the job shared position to the extent that a layoff would occur, both job sharers will be given layoff notice and the provision of the agreement with respect to layoff, bumping and recall will apply.

9. If the job sharing arrangement is for longer than six months, a review will be conducted before the end of six months.

10. The job sharing arrangement is renewable provided a request for renewal is made to the Employer at least 30 days prior to the expiry of the existing arrangement. All the conditions outlined above shall be followed.

THE UNDERSIGNED BARGAINING REPRESENTATIVES, ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE DISTRICT OF SQUAMISH AND THE UNDERSIGNED REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL NO. 2269, AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

Pre-School Instructors:

For as long as Janice Wilkinson (the incumbent) is employed by the District of Squamish as a Regular Part time Pre-School Instructor, the following will apply:

1. During the program break from the end of programs in December each year to the beginning of programs in the next January, the incumbents will receive a minimum of 20 hours per week of work in either programs or other projects for all weeks except one which will be taken as a week without pay.
2. The incumbents shall be excluded from the provisions of clause 12.05(c) of the Collective Agreement.
3. For program break periods from the end of Spring Programs to the start of Fall Programs each year (approximately June 15 through to September) the incumbents shall notify the Deputy Parks & Recreation Director of their intent to vacations as per clause 17.04 of the Collective Agreement. If it is determined that there are no pre-school programs during this program break, the incumbents shall be layed off as per the layoff provisions of the Collective Agreement.

At such time as Janice Wilkinson leave the employment of the District the Regular Part time Pre-School Instructor position(s) shall cease.
